

VILLA SPICE at Lime Samui

This ultra stylish and luxurious holiday villa is one of Koh Samui's newest and most impressive private vacation options, with a stunning hillside location overlooking the island's dramatic sunset coast.

The inspired, cliffside design features stone-filled outer terraces extending out from private balconies, while inside, the villa's crisp white interiors slide open onto the views and lend the property a distinctive architectural style reminiscent of a Mediterranean luxury holiday residence.

Original modern art adorns the walls, complemented by Asian art pieces and impressive attention to detail in the custom furnishings and décor offers guests a enviable tropical lifestyle experience cushioned in modern luxury.

The villa's striking design includes 5 comfortable, spacious bedrooms and generous open-plan living spaces housed in a grand building that literally steps down through the forested hillside. A wide central stairwell descends through multiple levels with indoor facilities positioned to the left and right. Outstanding additions include a fully equipped gym, a dedicated spa and an exceptional private cinema room that comfortably seats 12+ guests.

Villa Spice has been deftly designed to draw in the sublime coastal views with a subtle combination of indoor and outdoor living areas that encourage guests to drift through the villa making the most of their own exclusive upscale resort. The crisp interior designs emphasize the generosity of space, and every room comes with a range of appealing additions, whether its top-of-the-line kitchen appliances, leading edge music systems, flat screen HDTVs or the latest home gadgets and accessories.

Guests that choose Villa Spice at Lime Samui also enjoy astounding views across the crystalline waters of the Gulf of Siam and out to the limestone peaks of Thailand's National Marine Park that pepper the horizon.
